George
Turnham's
Will

In the name of God Amen. I George Turnham of Spencer County and State of Kentucky being weak in body but sound in Mind and Judgment, and Considering the uncertainty of life, do make this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following to wit.

Item. I want all my just debts to be paid the first thing.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my beloved Wife, Nancy Turnham so long as she shall remain my Widow, all my Estate both personal and real, that shall remain after paying my just debts, leaving it with her and under her Control, to manage as she may think proper except a piece or parcel of Land containing about thirty acres, be the same more or less, lying by the side of the piece or parcel of Land that Gideon Devol now lives upon, and between said Devol and Francis Jackson, continuing the same course that the end lines of S^r Devol's present piece of Land now does, untill they intersect said Francis Jackson's line, and including all the Land that lies between these lines. Now the above mentioned piece or parcel of Land is hereby granted to S^r Devol, or he is to have the privilege of having said piece of Land, if he shall be able to purchase the same, and wishes to buy it; Nevertheless if the S^r Devol does not purchase the above mentioned piece or parcel of Land that he is to have the liberty of purchasing, then and in that case it is to be in the possession of my Wife as the rest of my Land to be under her Control and Management.

Item. My Will and desire is, that my Wife Nancy shall give to each of my Children that are now with her, namely, Thomas, George, Nancy and Sally, as they shall arrive to Lawful age, a proportion of my Estate to make them equal in property to those of my Children, that have Married, and are now living to themselves.

Item. My Will and desire further is, that the residue of my Estate (if any) after making my Younger Children equal in property to the older ones, shall be equally divided amongst all my Children after the death of my Wife.

I hereby Ordain constitute and appoint my beloved Wife Nancy Turnham my Executrix with full power and authority to act and transact all my unsettled business of every kind whatever, to receive all and every debt due me, either by Note or otherwise as well as to pay all debts that I owe.

Item. My Will and desire further is, that as to respects my older Children that have Married, namely Frances, Elizabeth and Lucy, I want them
