Gilbert Devol's Will

In the name of God Amen.
 I Gilbert Devol of Waterford in the County of Washington and State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory, do advanced in years and calling to mind the mortality of my Body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament that is to say, as touching my worldly estate, I direct that my Just and Lawful debts should be paid out of my estate, After which, I give and bequeath to my loving wife Anne Devol all that personal property which she brought to me, and one half of the remainder of my personal property at her disposal, I also give and bequeath to my wife one third of the improved farm which I now live on together with the mansion house, all which personal and real estate I give her in lieu of her dower or power of third during her natural life.

I Out of respect to my daughter in law Sally Devol widow of my son Waulon Devol late of Waterford deceased, I give and bequeath to her the house which she now lives in and five acres of land beginning on the River road at the corner or end of the partition fence adjoining the upper end of my orchard, three running west so far as that a south line shall contain five acres to go with all the privileges thereto belonging to her the said Sally Devol her heirs and assigns forever. Said five acres to be set off exclusive of the road on the bank of the River.

I Give and bequeath to my grandson Philip Devol four lots of lands which I have purchased of John Dodge, Joseph Thompson, John White and James Whitney, administrator of the estate of Gilbert Devol Sr. and are numbered 21 - 22 - 23 & 24 he is to have said lots of land under the incumbrance of my former gifts over to my wife and to his mother, during his natural life, after which it is to fall to Gilbert Devol son of the said

4th I give and bequeath to my grand son Alpha Devo an additional lot of land of dimensions which adjoin the north east corner of lot No 21 clear from all incumbrance.

5th Taking into consideration the services which I have formerly rendered to my daughter (Mrs.) Mary Stinkley Triscilla White, Polly M. Colver and Batha a Needle and in consequence of their holding their equal shares of a lot belonging to the estate of my son Edward Devo late of Waterford deceased.

I give and bequeath to my said daughter one dollar each and order and direct that after my decease that any executor should pay the same out of my estate.

6th In addition to my former gift to my daughter in law Sally Devo, I give unto her the privilege of taking fruit out of my orchards for her family's use, in bearing season, not exceeding one fourth part of said fruits.

7th I do hereby order and direct that my executor shall sell and dispose of a tract of unimproved lands which I own lying in the Fifth Township and Tenth Range, and in sections 6, 7 and 10, and is an undivided third part of a section and fractions drawn in the name of Johnathan Devo and lying in the Ohio Company's purchase said land to be disposed of for the purpose of paying my just debts and settling up my estate.

8th I do hereby appoint and ordain my grand son Philip Devo my executor, granting full power in him to settle up my estate agreeable to this my last will and Testament, hereby disannulling all former will and Testament, and ratifying and confirming this my last will and Testament.

Joseph Cook's Will

In the name of God Amen

I Joseph Cook of Belfre in the County of Washington and State of Ohio being in full health and of sound disposing mind and memory, and believing it not only proper, but necessary, at such a period, to make a disposition of my realty estate and to declare what my will is in the same, do by these presents make known that it is my will, that my estate, after my decease, be disposed of in the following manner, that is to say, First, it is my will, that all my Just debts be paid to gettne with all the expenses that may attend my funeral and the settlement of my estate.

Secondly, in the other disposition of my estate it is my will, that Rhoda Cook my wife, shall have the use of our half my house which I now own and occupy in Belfre and the privilege of using part of the cellar under the same for her conveniencetogether with the use of our fourth of an acre of land, also one good cow, and one good feather bed and its proper furniture, all which my said wife Rhoda is to occupy during her natural life.

Thirdly, It is my will, that my son Bennett Cook shall have the our undivided half of six thousand six hundred and sixty acres of land, which I purchased for taxes in company with Stephen R. Wilson, situate in Wood County and which I hold by deed from the State of Virginia, which land I do hereby bequeath to the said Bennett Cook his heirs and assigns forever, as a tract in common with Parker Cook another legatee in this my will.

Fourthly, I give and bequeath to John Cook another of my sons one hundred and eighty acres of land on which he now lives in Wood County, and which I hold by deed from Joseph Spruce, to him the said John Cook his heirs and assigns forever.

Fifthly, I give and bequeath to Joseph Cook another of my sons all my land and buildings in Belfre which I bought and hold by deed from John Wrenneth, and from Rhoda Cook which land and lots, or parts of lots, are situate in Sections 25 and 26 in Township One of Range Nine, to him the said Joseph Cook his heirs and assigns forever. It is however to be distinctly understood that my son Joseph Cook his heirs or assigns are not to come into the possession of that part of the same, within the fourth part of an acre of land, which I have willed the use of to my wife Rhoda Cook during her natural life until the decease of the said Rhoda Cook.

Sixthly, I give and bequeath to my son Parker Cook the farm on which he now lives consisting of two hundred acres of land which I hold by deed from John Dean and from his wife Mary which is situate in Wood County, in the Mills, and also the one undivided half part of six thousand six hundred and sixty acres of land which I purchased for taxes in company with Stephen R. Wilson and is situate in Wood County in Virginia, to be held as an estate in common with Bennett Cook one of the legatees named in this my will, until they make partition of the same, to him the said Parker Cook his heirs and assigns forever.

Seventhly, I give and bequeath to my sons Joseph, Fullingbush Cook and Pardon Cook all and every part of the farm lately occupied by me in Wood County, Virginia and which they now occupy, and also all my other real estate which I have not disposed of by this my will, where same may be found to gather with all my personal estate of every nature and kind after there shall be made and executed full and complete discharge of
